

BRAYER JOINS BOYLE FREDRICKSON STAFF

MILWAUKEE, (October, 2007) – Boyle Fredrickson, the largest intellectual property law firm in Wisconsin, has announced the addition of a new attorney to its staff: Michael S. Brayer.

Brayer joins the firm after seven years working as an associate patent attorney with Foley & Lardner. He obtained his law degree from the University of Michigan and bachelor's degree in computer science from the University of Wisconsin – Madison. He also completed significant MBA coursework at the University of New Mexico.

Brayer is a member of the state bar of Wisconsin and is registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. He is also a member of the Wisconsin Intellectual Property Law Association and the American Intellectual Property Law Association. He resides in Brookfield and enjoys reading, triathlon training, computers and traveling in his free time.
